2nd & 5th Years Examinations will take place in the GYM.

In order to allow for the smooth running of the house exams, please read through the points below.

- ALL STUDENTS MUST BE PRESENT FOR THE ENTIRE DAY DURING THE EXAMINATIONS
- All students must be in their designated labelled seat before the second bell each morning irrespective of the start time of the examination for roll call and counting of exam papers.
- Students must have the proper equipment for all examinations as borrowing or sharing of equipment (calculators, rulers, pens, etc) is not permitted.
- Students must follow the instructions of the teachers on duty
- MOBILE PHONES must be switched off completely (not simply silenced) and not visible during the examination sessions. They must not be used as a calculator.
- Students should bring study materials with them to revise during non-exam sessions.
- All students are required to wear their full uniform for the duration of the summer examinations.
- Please show consideration for all other students doing the examinations by behaving appropriately at all times.

Finally, the best of luck to all of our exam students from all our staff at Abbey Vocational School.
